Undergraduate Students Leave & Excused Absence Application

Shao, Fangwei

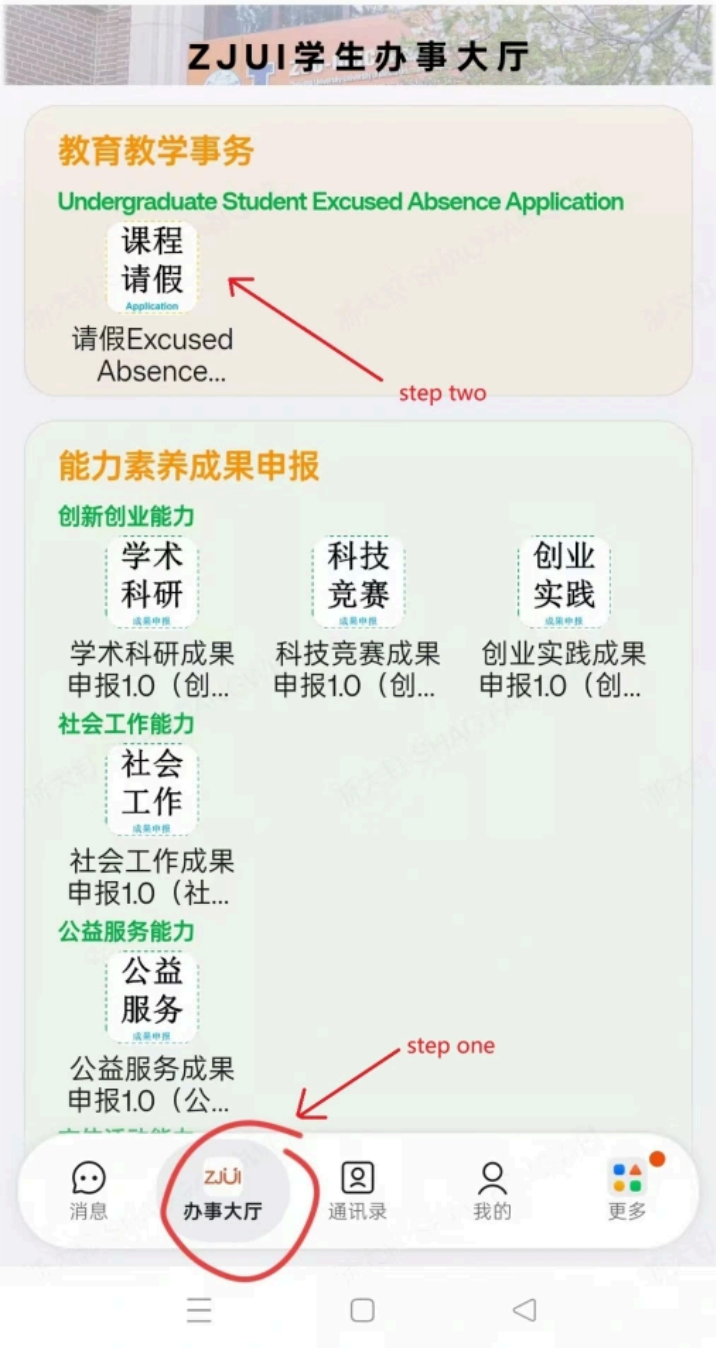
2 分钟读完

Dear students,

Before submitting your leave of absence application, please carefully read and understand the following instructions.

1. You are not allowed to take a leave for more than four weeks. If this is the case, you MUST apply to gap the semester.
2. If You apply for leave shorter than 4 weeks and longer than 14 days, you MUST seek approval from ZJUI Dean, Professor Hao MA in advance.
3. Unless you are applying for medical leave or family emergency, the application MUST be submitted at least THREE business days in advance.
4. In the occasion of emergency for medical leave, you can apply after your visit to the clinics.
5. For family emergency, you should inform class tutor before you leave and apply for leave as soon as you come back to campus, if you cannot apply before you leave the campus.
6. Filling out this online form does NOT guarantee that your application will be approved and you will have an excused absence.

7. Couse instructors are not obliged to the excused absence with reasons other than medical leave, family emergency and extra-curriculum activities at institute-level or above.
8. You can appeal the decision on your leave/absence application to UA office with sufficient justification and new supporting documents.
9. You shall go to dingtalk apps/"ZJUI Institute" organization/ and follow the instruction in the following screenshot of dingtalk app.



10. You can track the status of your application in dingtalk app.

11. You can show the approval msg in dingtalk app to course instructor if necessary.

12. If your application is denied, your absence will not be counted as an excused absence.

13. Leave without an approved email will still be counted as absence. If you don't receive decision 3 days after your submission, please contact your class tutor.

ZJUI Undergraduate Academic Affairs Office